

April 2021 newsletter

Entrepreneurs are always learning! Strategic Coach on LinkedIn is a great resource – here is one of their most recent posts:

There's a growing awareness that entrepreneurs are driving the world's progress, but what is it that really motivates them to go off on their own with no guarantee of success or even income?

It isn't what most people think. It's not money, and it's not status. It's freedom. This freedom comes in four different varieties, and when you become conscious of them, it has a tremendously clarifying effect on your thinking.

HARVESTER CENTER NEWS

Welcome to our newest tenants:

Ballin' on a Budget

Game of Throws

Integrity Tool & Machine (June 1)

Tasty Treats with Tenants continued! Buffalo Precision Glass, Merrill Lynch and LVA enjoyed Batavia's original pizza! Thank you all for being part of The Harvester Center!

Harrison Place welcomes Kraydo Organics

Kraydo Organics is ready take the next step and grow their business with us, and adding 3 jobs to the Harrison Place campus

<https://kraydo-organics.com>

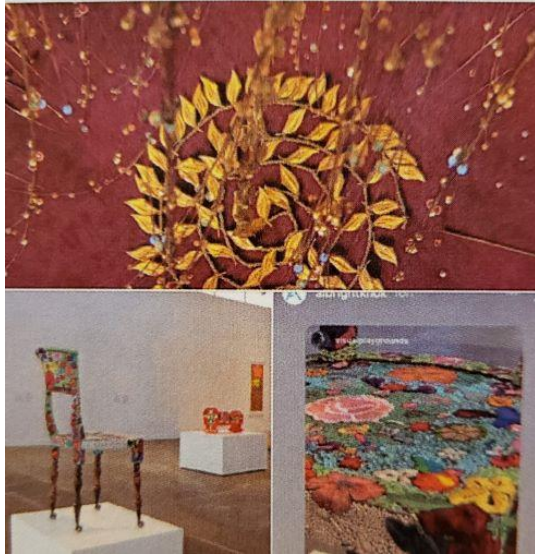

Calling all movie extras!

June 1, 2021, the movie SLA will be filmed right here at Harrison Place! If you would like to participate in a NON paid movie extra, please email

Edla@MancusoGroup.com

NORTHLAND
BELTLINE

Good news for the Northland Corridor!
We welcome Bank on Buffalo to 683 Northland and look forward to their future contributions to Northland Central and the entire Delavan-Grider neighborhood.

Esperanza Cortes is part of exhibition at the Albright Knox Northland. *Comunidades
Visibles: The Materiality of Migration*, runs through May 16. Thanks to curator Andrea Alvarez

Thank you for your continued support. Please let us know what we can do to help you succeed!

Contact Us
Mancuso Business Development Group
56 Harvester Ave.
Batavia NY 14020
585-343-2800
opportunity@mancusogroup.com
www.mancusogroup.com

